Authorization for UW School of Dentistry to Use or Disclose Protected Health Information for Publicity

Potential for Re-disclosure: Once your health information has been disclosed, the law does not always require the receiver of your information to keep it confidential.

Revocation: This authorization may be revoked by submitting a request in writing to:

UW School of Dentistry Compliance
Box 356365
Seattle, WA 98195

Note: A request to revoke this authorization will not take affect any actions already taken based on the original authorization, or prevent UW School of Dentistry from requiring the information in order to be paid for treatment that you receive.

I understand I have the following rights to:

- Inspect or to receive a copy of my protected health information
- Receive a copy of this signed form
- Refuse to sign this form for authorization to disclose or release my protected health information

I also understand UW School of Dentistry will not base treatment or payment decisions on receipt of this signed authorization, except in these cases: (1) UW School of Dentistry may condition research-related treatment on my signing or my providing an authorization for the use or disclosure of my information for such research or (2) UW School of Dentistry may condition the provision of healthcare that is just for the purpose of creating protected health information for disclosure to a third party on my signing or my providing an authorization for the disclosure of the health information to such third party. An example of this is when a non-UW employer contracts with UW to conduct TB testing for purposes of employee health screening.
